

Panvel Municipal Corporation

Our Census, Our Development

India's largest citizen participatory process Census 2027 is beginning

This Is Not Just a Count ... It Is The Foundation Of Developed India @ 2047

- ❑ Government of India will conduct Census 2027 digitally – A major step towards modernizing the census process.
- ❑ The reference date for Census 2027 is 1 March 2027.
- ❑ The government of Maharashtra, General administration department has issued a government resolution (No. Jang-1225/Pr.Kr.59/Vika-a, Dated 23 December 2025) regarding administrative arrangements for Census 2027.

Census Shows – Where Needs Exist, Who Needs Support, And How To Plan The Nation's Future.

Let's Participate Responsibly In Census 2027

❑ First phase of census for Maharashtra

house listing and housing census

1 may 2026 to 15 may 2026 – self enumeration

How to Self-Enumerate?

visit the official census portal <https://se.census.gov.in> step 1: Select Maharashtra and enter the captcha step 2: Household registration

step 3: Language and otp verification step 4: Provide location details

step 5: Locate residence on map

step 6: Complete the questionnaire

step 7: Preview and review

step 8: Final submission

step 9: Share your generated SE id code with enumerator when he/she visits your house

❑ 16 MAY 2026 TO 14 JUNE 2026 – FIELD OPERATIONS

- details of every house will be recorded.
 - information about housing condition, amenities, and basic details will be collected.
-

Your information is completely safe

- Protected under the census act, 1948.
- Names and identities are not made public.
- Data is not used for taxation or investigation – only for nation building

Benefits Of Census

- Accurate basis for future policies
- Proper allocation of resources
- Right schemes at the right place
- Better schools, hospitals, and roads
- Inclusive development of all sections